Topics

What's New in Contracts and Compliance? Not much except...

- The COVID Public Health Emergency ended, meaning that the Stark and Anti-kickback rules will now once again be strictly enforced.
- The Supreme Court just issued a landmark opinion defining “knowledge” in the context of the False Claims Act
- A number of states are now reviewing physician practice acquisitions.
- 75% of all physicians are now employed. When questions arise with regard to the competence, behavior or health of an employed physician, should you follow your HR policies or the medical staff bylaws?
- Even more APPs are becoming employed. What are the rules for paying them and the physicians who supervise or collaborate with them?

... and that just scratches the surface!

Join Henry Casale, Dan Mulholland and Hala Mouzaffar to learn about these and other challenges that will affect your physician contracts and compliance efforts in today's Brave New World.

The following topics will be discussed:

- No Surprises Act
- Telemedicine Dos and Don'ts
- Latest Stark and Anti-kickback regulations
- Physician compensation including productivity incentives – fair market value and commercial reasonableness reimagined
- Compensation for AHPs and physicians who supervise them
- Is it okay to track or require referrals?
- The latest on Employment Contracts and Personal Service Arrangements
- Making sure compensation tracks reimbursement rules and modifiers
- Making sense of the “incident to” and “split share” rules
- How often should you review physician contracts and compensation?
- Using artificial intelligence for contract management
- Using employed physicians as your exclusive provider
- Update on FCA, Stark and Anti-kickback decisions, settlements and ways to correct mistakes
- And much, much more!
